Re: Thompson v. Conseco

Dear Mr. Wodin:

I am extremely concerned about the proposed Release that you have now sent to us and which we received June 19, 2008. This action was settled on May 29, 2008. At that time, you assured me that Plaintiff would receive her check within two weeks. Now, notwithstanding the elapsed time, you sent a settlement agreement which contains venue in Indiana and a unilateral penalty provision for breach of the confidentiality provision of the agreement. If I do not have at this office a release that is consistent with the terms of the settlement we reached May 29, 2008 by the close of business June 23, I will move the Court to enforce the settlement agreement entered May 29, 2008.

Very truly yours,

Michael P. Guta

Re: Pamela Thompson v. Conseco Senior Health Insurance Company

Dear Mr. Guta:

This is in response to your letter of this date.

First, there has been no unreasonable delay, on our part, in providing you with the release and dismissal. The settlement conference took place on May 29, 2008. At that time, you were advised you that it was anticipated that we could provide the settlement check within a few weeks of the execution of the release and dismissal. Thereafter, both my associate and I attempted to reach you, by telephone, on several occasions, to determine how you wanted the settlement check was to be made out - something which was to be placed in the release, and therefore needed to be known, before we finalized the release. We were unable to reach you, which held up the preparation of the release. When we finally received the information, by message from your secretary, we promptly completed preparation of the release, and sent it to you on June 16.

Second, the document which was prepared at the time of the settlement conference was cursory. You were advised, at that time, that we would be providing you with a detailed and comprehensive release, which we have done. If there are provisions of the release which you wish to have changed, as seems to be the case, then please call me, and I will be happy to discuss them with you. You mention some things in your letter. However, I cannot tell whether those are the only things you have a question about, and it makes no sense to do this on a piecemeal basis.

Very truly yours,
